

MBTI® master class workshop

Type and Leadership

Myers-Briggs Type Indicator® (MBTI®) Master Class Series workshops are designed for certified practitioners who wish to deepen their understanding of type theory and its practical application.

To achieve an organisation's goals through the efforts of others, leaders engage in three main activities:

- Setting direction for the organization
- Inspiring others to work toward that direction
- Mobilizing the effective accomplishment of goals

Leaders are found - and needed - at all levels and in all kinds of organizations. No matter what kind of organization, group or leadership style, learning how personality type affects leadership will help you increase the capacity of your leaders to achieve organizational goals.

Adapted from: Introduction to Type® and Leadership (2008) by Sharon Lebovitz Richmond

You will learn to:

Identify inherent leadership potential

Examine habits that can limit success

Broaden views on developing effective leaders

Develop and tailor leadership improvement plans

Develop a logical framework and practical tools to support individuals and organizations in developing effective and inspirational leaders

Use type-related exercises and insights that can be applied in leadership development programs

Other MBTI® Master Class Workshops

- Adv. Applications
- Type and Change
- Type and Coaching
- Type and Conflict
